What's it about?

Paul is now being asked to speak to the people of Athens. He doesn't start with the scriptures but uses something they would all know about to introduce them to the knowledge of the true God.

15 Put the following statements from Paul's address to the Athenians into the correct sequence [3]

- A God is not like anything made of gold, silver or man's imagination
- B God is going to judge the world through Jesus, having raised Him from the dead
- C God commands everyone to repent
- D God is near each of us
