What's it about?

In John 9 we find a man who was very different to Zacchaeus - a beggar who was blind from birth. His life was changed when his eyes were made well by Jesus. Just after he was healed, he stood up for the "man called Jesus", even though the Pharisees said He was not a good man. When he finally saw Jesus he worshipped Him.

16 Describe what happened in the last verses by numbering these statements in the right order. [4]
