What's it about?

Jesus had been brought to Pontius Pilate, the Roman governor. The chief priests wanted Pilate to give permission for Jesus to be crucified (a brutal, painful way to die on a cross).

First, the soldiers take Jesus to their barracks and then mistreat Him. His own people then reject Him.

Read: John 19:1-16

4 What else did the soldiers do to Jesus?

5 Where did Jesus say Pilate's authority had come from?

3 Match the people with the correct description.

The chief priests

... made a crown of thorns

Pilate

... had Jesus scourged/whipped

The soldiers

... said "Crucify him"

6

What did Pilate decide to do with Jesus?

Keep Him in prison

Release Him

Let Him be crucified

Look at: Mark 15:15-27

- 7 The soldiers struck Jesus' head and spat on Him.
- 8 Jesus was led away to be crucified, wearing the purple robe.
- 9 The soldiers compelled someone else to carry Jesus' cross.
